

United States Navy Biographies

First Class Aviation Ordnancemen (Aviation Warfare/Surface Warfare/Information Warfare) Anita L. Zyskowski, U.S. Navy

Petty Officer First Class Anita L. Zyskowski was born on June 15, 1993, raised with a Polish background in Greenpoint Brooklyn, New York. In 2006, she moved to Wilmington, Delaware and graduated high school. From there, she joined the U.S. Navy in July 2012. Following the completion of Recruit Training Command, she attended Aviation Ordnance "A" School at Naval Air Technical Training Center, Pensacola, FL.

Petty Officer Zyskowski's first sea tour began 2013 onboard USS Harry S. Truman (CVN 75) home ported in Norfolk, VA. As G-3 Team Leader and Magazine Supervisor she completed two deployments. In between her sea tour, she gave birth to her son Abel Riviere in 2016 and completed a tour at Helicopter Sea Combat Squadron 2 (HSC-2) granting her the experience of MH-60s. She returned to USS Harry S. Truman as Aviation Weapons Movement Control Station Supervisor and Departmental Qualification Certification Program Manager. She received Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal (Shipboard Explosive Safety Inspection), Enlisted Aviation Warfare Specialist, Enlisted Information Warfare Specialist and advancement up to Second Class Petty Officer.

In 2019, she reported to Strike Fighter Squadron 106 (VFA 106) of Naval Air Base Oceana, Virginia after completing F/A-18E/F Weapons "C" school. There she completed over 60 detachments qualifying 265 Fleet Ready Aircrew annually. During her tour, she was hand selected by Combat Strike Fighter Wing Atlantic to contribute to the Chief Naval Operations directed Sailor 2025 initiative. Her duties and achievements consisted of Ordnance Workcenter Production Leading Petty Officer, Full Systems Quality Assurance Representative, Command Qualification Certification Board Member, Command Duty Section Leader, FCPOA Public Affairs Officer. She completed her Associates in Science in Business Administration at Tidewater Community College with Magna Cum Laude honors in 2020.

Checking onboard USS George H. W. Bush January of 2022, Petty Officer Zyskowski was the G-3 Production Leading Petty Officer onboard. Thus far, successfully completed three major ammunition onloads, TSTA/FEP, and FOUR major COMNAVAIRLANT Inspection setting the Department as Best in the Fleet standard and being awarded the BLACK W. Presently, she is assigned as G-3 Division LPO, leading nine First Class Petty Officers and 150 Sailors. Her duties and achievements include Weapons Training Team Member, Ordnance Qualification Certification Board Member, Gunnery Liaison Officer and Weapons Department Duty Officer, and Officer of the Deck (in port). Awarded, Navy and Marine Corp Achievement Medal.